The Sermon A. The Lord began with the application of fulfilled scripture. This scripture was a fountain of living waters for in it streams of blessings began to flow from the anointed One to the poor, the brokenhearted, the captives, the blind, and the bruised (Zechariah 14:8; John 7:38). This was a sermon suited to the needs of all.

question, "Why is the church important?" Would you care to comment? We're hardly prepared for his answer. He says, "I believe the church of Jesus Christ is the most important force in the world today. Its task is more important than all the governments and universities of the world combined. There is nothing to compare with it!"
